What's been happening

Some more signs having been made by Robert O'Brien at the DVMS.

The word "Lake" may be a bit grand for a collection of mud & leach ate , but beggars can't be choosers!

It lies along the Westall extension, the other side of the top of the tip high ground. Difficult to see unless you walk over the hill.

Cheers David Madill

Just because we now have a vinyl floor in the kitchen 'wet area" , that doesn't mean you can still spill your drinks all across the floor.

If you cannot hold a cup upright in one hand and have the other hand full of cake and biscuits, then we suggest you only half fill your cup.

Doesn't that ceiling look great! More pictures to follow.

Derek preparing the outer boxing for the golf putting area.

This photo gives you a good insight into the amount of work John Bach has put into the cooler installation.

Just how picture perfect is the amenities shed, clean & tidy, now watch what happens at the Friday morning meeting

February - Saturday 16th was a busy day for DVMS as manpower was required for our two main fund raisers - the Dingley Farmers Market and the annual Bunnings BBQ . Thank you goes to Paul for again keeping the team on track at the market and to Robert for all of the work that goes into the BBQ - those kilos of sausages and onion don't just get there on their own. A profit for the BBQ of over $1,100 makes it all worthwhile.

Would you take directions from these two?

Anyone for a sausage with onion on the bottom?

America is the only country where a significant proportion of the population believes that professional wrestling is real but the moon landing was faked.

Tuesday Camera Group

Experimenting with light was a recent theme with some remarkable results - have a look at the display to see more of the results, or better still, call in Tuesday afternoon and become a part of the group.

'On ya bike'

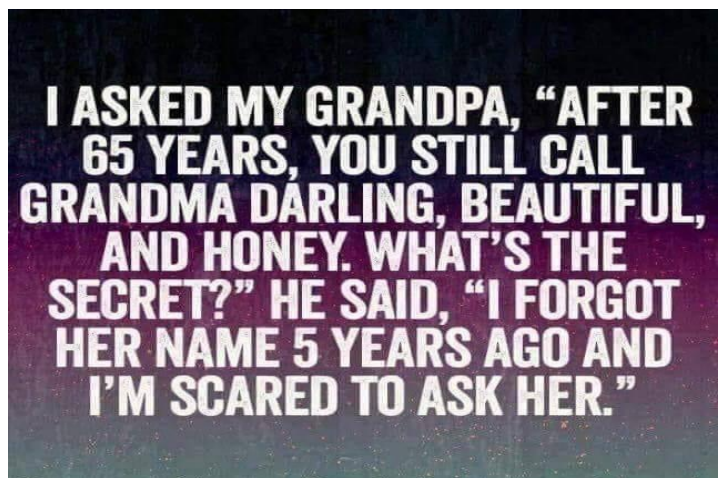

The Bike Group are still very active even if some of the repair jobs need a lot of deep thinking.

Thanks to David Ellis for the terrific photos

Finally a parking spot for us fat guys picking up a new BBQ

'Where ya been?'

No idea, hasn't someone got an article to fill in this spot?

What's new in the workshop

Just a couple of shots of the workshop in action.

Now this is really going to take some restoration, plus someone brave to test drive it when finished.

Warren getting into it - notice the fine placement of safety equipment.

To be politically correct, you can cross out whatever name you prefer

(Bill Shorten /Scott Morrison) is my Shepherd, I shall not want:

He will leadeth me beside still factories and abandoned farms
 He will restoreth my faith about the Labour/Liberal Party
 He will annointeth my wages with taxes and inflation
 So my expenses runneth over my income
 Surely poverty and hard living shall follow if Labor/Liberal win

Five thousand years ago Moses said:
 "Pack your Camels pick up your shovels, move your ass,
 and I will lead you to the Promised Land."

Five thousand years later (Bill/Scot) said:
 "Lay down your shovels, sit on your ass, light up a joint. This is the Promised Land".

Next election (Bill/Scott) could take your shovel, sell your camel, kick your ass and tell you he gave away the Promise Land.

I'm glad I'm Australian, I'm glad I'm free.
 But I wish I were a dog and (Bill/Scott) was a tree.

If life were fair Elvis would still be alive today and all the impersonators would be dead.

Birthday wishes to:

These are from a book called Disorder in the Courts and are things people actually said in court, word for word, taken down and published by court reporters that had the torment of staying calm while the exchanges were taking place....
